This is a great story!

Finding my family: Omaye/Omae Family History | Nikkei Australia

I am a PhD Candidate in History at James Cook University in Townsville. I have been conducting historical archival research on the history of the Nikkei community in north Queensland during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. I have a keen interest in contributing to and supporting the telling of these important histories within Australia's past.

Hi members, welcome to the Membership Portal, where you can make friends, network, create groups and invite other members, send private messages, collaborate on projects, pick each others' brains for ideas...

Here's a guide to our Membership Portal:

LOGIN: from the Members' Portal home page, click on Log in. Your Username/Email Address is the email that you registered when you joined Nikkei Australia. Then click Lost Password and an email will be sent to you. Click on the link in the email and choose a strong password. That's your login for the Portal.

PROFILE: Hover over your name or image and a menu will appear. Click on Profile and the bio that you supplied when you joined Nikkei Australia will appear. Please keep your bio updated, especially if you are involved in any Nikkei Australia related projects. You can change your profile image, cover photo.
